

WPT2011 Satellite Programme

Physiotherapeutic management of anorectal dysfunction in adults and children

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.00 – 8.45	Registration
8.45 – 8.50	Opening	Rebecca Stephenson, IOPTWH president
	Definitions and prevalence
8.50 – 9.15	Definitions, prevalence & incidence of anorectal dysfunction in children: presentation & case study	Dr. Marc A. Benninga
9.15 – 9.45	Definitions, prevalence, & incidence of anorectal dysfunction in adults: presentation & case study	Dr. Richelle J.F. Felt-Bersma
	Diagnosis
9.45 – 10.15	Diagnostic approach in children by the paediatric pelvic floor physiotherapist	Mrs. Netty M.W.L. Bluysen, MPPT
10.15 – 10.45	Break
10.45 – 11.15	The relationship between anorectal dysfunction and pelvic organ prolapse in women	Dr. Marijke C.Ph. Slieker-ten Hove
11.15 – 11.45	Diagnostic approach in adults by the pelvic physiotherapist	Mrs. Jenneke Kalkdijk-Dijkstra, MSPT
	Therapy
11.45 – 12.15	Prevalence and pathophysiological mechanisms of rectal hyposensitivity and the effect of sensory retraining	Dr. David D.E. Zimmerman
12.15 – 13.00	Break
13.00 – 14.00	Therapeutic options for children with anorectal dysfunction; latest advances	Mrs. Netty M.W.L. Bluysen, MPPT
14.00 – 14.45	Therapeutic options for adults with anorectal dysfunction; latest advances	Mrs. Ulla Due
14.45 – 15.00	Break
	Surgery
15.00 – 15.30	If physiotherapy fails in children with anorectal dysfunction - surgical options	Dr. Richard A. Th. M. Langemeijer
15.30 – 16.00	If physiotherapy fails in adults with anorectal dysfunction - surgical options	Dr. David D.E. Zimmerman
16.00 – 16.30	Panel discussion
16.30	Close	