

Press Release

WCPT launches Art & Health competition

25 October 2010

For immediate release

WCPT is pleased to announce the launch of its Art & Health competition. Selected finalists will be shown at WCPT's Congress, World Physical Therapy 2011, being held in Amsterdam, 20-23 June.

The competition will focus on the theme Movement for Health. WCPT is seeking outstanding pieces of artwork relevant to physical therapy including:

- human movement in health and disease
- people with functional limitations in action
- physical therapy practice across the lifespan

All entries must be submitted electronically (as a JPEG photograph) with the original artwork created in one of the following forms:

- photography
- painting
- drawing
- sculpture

All images should be taken at the best quality available. If a photograph of a sculpture, drawing or painting is being submitted, the artwork must be clearly visible and well lit.

The competition is open to professionals and amateurs alike - all that is required is a passion for your work! A maximum of 3 entries may be submitted by any one individual.

The closing date for the competition is 31 January 2011. Please email entries (or direct any enquiries) to Mia Lockner at info@wcpt.org.

Awards

Overall winner: will be awarded a WCPT Art & Health Competition Winner certificate. The photograph/submitted image of work will be given a high profile within the Art & Health exhibit at WCPT's Congress. The photograph will be featured on the WCPT website and within the website's photo gallery.

Runners up: will be awarded a WCPT Art & Health Competition Runner-up certificate. The photograph/submitted image of work will be shown within the Art & Health exhibit at WCPT's Congress. Runners-up entries will also be featured in the photo gallery on the WCPT website.

Copyright and permissions

- The individual entering the competition must be the photographer/artist and the owner of the copyright for any works entered.
- Submissions must provide evidence that permissions have been obtained from any person/s featured in the photographs. Students/patients/models/actors may be used.
- By entering this competition the photographer/artist is granting WCPT a non-exclusive licence to display their entry/entries in connection with this contest, as well as on its website and within promotional materials.
- The photographer/artist retains copyright of their entry/entries and will be credited alongside their submitted work/s.
