International Organization of Physical Therapists in Paediatrics

CONSTITUTION

1. Name and International Recognition

- 1.1 The name of the Organization shall be the International Organization of Physical Therapists in Paediatrics ( IOPTP) hereafter referred to as the Organization. The Organization is a recognized sub-group of the World Confederation for Physical Therapy (WCPT)
- 1.2 The Organization is a non-governmental affiliation of physical therapists and their member countries who share an interest in promoting the health of children worldwide.
- 1.3 The rules and membership requirements for the Organization will be consistent with the requirements for recognition as a subgroup of the WCPT
- 1.4 Procedures not stipulated in these rules will follow those of the WCPT as included in the WCPT Articles of Association and procedural documents.

2. Objectives

The objectives of the Organization are to :

- 2.1 Be recognized as a subgroup of WCPT in accordance with the WCPT Articles of Association.
- 2.2 Foster co-operation between physical therapists practicing in paediatrics throughout the world.
- 2.3 Encourage improved standards and consistency of practice in paediatrics care by physical therapists.
- 2.4 Advance practice by communication and exchange of information including electronic, print and personal exchanges.
- 2.5 Encourage scientific research and promote opportunities for the spread of knowledge of new developments in the field of Paediatrics.
- 2.6 Assist WCPT member countries in the development of recognized subsections in Paediatrics.
- 2.7 Support WCPT in representing physical therapy internationally
- 2.8 Engage in all necessary activities to further the best interests of WCPT

3. Membership

3.1 Members

- 3.1.1 The national organizations representing physical therapists with an interest in paediatrics. Members must be the WCPT member organization or groups recognized by the WCPT member organization. Members of the groups must also be members of the WCPT member organization. Only one organization per country shall be eligible for membership.
- 3.1.2 The Organization shall be composed of six or more Members who are recognized Paediatrics sub-sections of their respective WCPT Member Organizations and collectively are from two or more WCPT Regions. Members of the Paediatrics sub-section of the National Member Organization, shall also be members of the National Member Organization.

3.2 Full Member

3.2.1 A Paediatrics sub-section from each WCPT Member Organization may be admitted to membership, provided it meets the requirements laid down in Article 15 of the WCPT Articles of Association, and is approved by the IOPTP's Executive Committee.

3.2.2 Members shall be represented in the general meeting of the IOPTP by a representative elected from within the Paediatrics sub-section and approved by the National Parent Body.

3.2.3 Members have full right and privileges as stipulated by the IOPTP's general meeting and including:

3.2.3.1 The right to be represented and to vote at the IOPTP general meeting.

3.2.3.2 The right to submit motions and amendments to the rules for consideration at the general meeting of the IOPTP according to the meeting procedures.

3.3 Member Elect

A sub-section, as the principal organization representing Paediatrics may, while awaiting confirmation of Member status at a General Meeting, become a Member Elect for the period between approval by the Executive Committee and confirmation of Membership at the next General Meeting. Full membership shall be granted if approved by a two thirds majority of the voting delegates at a General Meeting.

3.4 Associate Member

A WCPT Member Organization which has not as yet a Paediatrics sub-section in place, but wishes to achieve full membership in the future, or is too small to ever have a recognized sub-section.

3.5 Special Member

Special Membership may be conferred by a two-thirds (2/3) assent of the voting delegates at a General Meeting. Special membership is an honorary category and is reserved for individuals rendering valuable service to the practice of Paediatrics internationally. Member Elect, Associate and Special Members shall not have the right to vote, or hold office.

3.6 Application for Membership

The Executive Committee shall regulate the procedure for membership applications.

3.7 Granting of Membership

The Executive Committee shall assess all applications for membership and make recommendations to the voting delegates at the next General Meeting. Membership shall be granted if approved by a two-thirds majority.

4. Termination and Reinstatement of Membership

4.1 Termination of Membership

A Member may terminate its membership by giving six months previous notice in writing to the Executive Committee and by paying all outstanding subscriptions.

4.2 Members remain in good standing so long as any subscription payments are maintained, they abide by the IOPTP constitution, and continue to be recognized by the WCPT Member Organization.

4.3 The Executive Committee may terminate membership on default in payment of subscriptions. Membership ceases if the current year subscription is not paid by December 31st or if the actions or policy of a member is detrimental to the best interest of the Organization or is likely to bring the Organization into disrepute. Liabilities to the Organization are not canceled. If all subscriptions in arrears are paid by June 30th in the succeeding year then the Member, if eligible, may be restored to membership without reapplication. In exceptional circumstances the Executive Committee shall have the power to postpone, waive or suspend the subscription required.

4.4 Reinstatement to Membership

4.4.1 An organization which has been excluded from membership under Article 4.2 for default in payment of subscription, may apply to the Executive Committee for reinstatement provided that no more than two years have elapsed since the termination of its membership; and provided that it is still eligible and the appropriate annual subscriptions for the intervening period are paid in full, the Executive Committee shall decide if the organization may be reinstated as a member of the Organization. If more than two years elapse, the country needs to reapply for membership in the Organization.

5. Duties and Rights of Members

5.1 Members shall comply with the Organization Constitution which shall not conflict with the WCPT Articles of Association.

5.2 Members shall pay the subscriptions in accordance with Article 11.

5.3 Members should send a voting delegate to at least one out of two consecutive General Meetings.
