How to login / register on the WCPT website

Options
If you have already registered.................................................................................................................. 2
If you have forgotten your password........................................................................................................... 4
If you have not registered............................................................................................................................ 5
If you have already registered

Go to http://www.wcpt.org/mywcpt

Click Login
• Enter your E-mail or username and password

!User account login form
If you have forgotten your password

- Go to http://www.wcpt.org/mywcpt
- Click Login
- Select Request new password

- Type in your E-mail and your new password will be sent to your email address. (If your email address is not recognised, please contact Rachel Moore at rmoore@wcpt.org)

- You should now be able to Login using the above instructions using your new password.
If you have not registered

Go to http://www.wcpt.org/mywcpt

- Click Register
- Select Create new account.
• Fill in the following sections:
  o Account information
  o Personal details
  o Membership information
  o Terms and conditions
• Click Create new account